2007-2008 SCHOOL PROFILE

SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

Falmouth High School is a comprehensive public high school offering a rigorous academic program and a wide range of athletic and extracurricular activities. It has an enrollment of approximately 660 students in grades 9 through 12; the Class of 2008 includes 152 students. Falmouth High School is accredited by the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the Maine Department of Education. Seventy-two percent of the teaching staff holds masters degrees or higher. The Town of Falmouth, population 11,000, is a seacoast community on Casco Bay with a long tradition of strong support for its schools. It is a community primarily of well-educated professionals who maintain very high expectations of their students, teachers and schools. Most residents earn their living in nearby Portland, Maine's largest city.

CURRICULUM

In addition to a full array of challenging college-preparatory (CP) and honors-level (H) courses, Falmouth High School offers a number of Advanced Placement (AP) and college-level courses. The Class of 2008 has had eleven AP courses available to them:

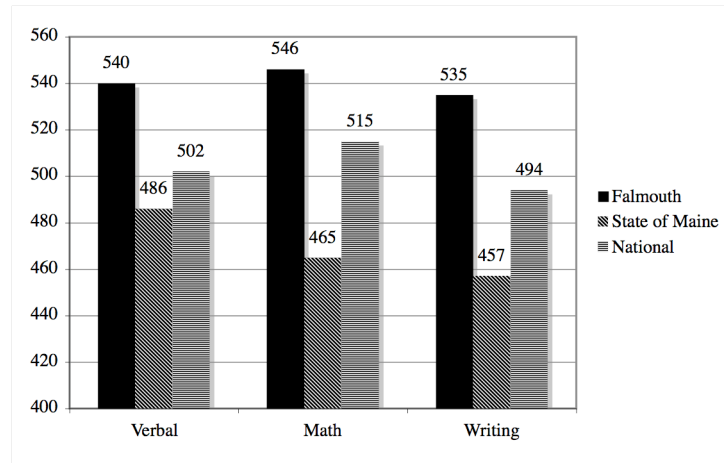

AP Biology	AP English Literature & Composition	AP United States History
AP Calculus AB	AP European History	AP Psychology
AP Chemistry	AP Government & Politics: Comparative	AP Statistics
AP English Language & Composition	AP Government & Politics: United States

Additional advanced courses include English IV Honors / English IV SUPA (Syracuse University Project Advance - taught at the college freshman level), French V Honors, and Spanish V Honors.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE

Grade Point Average is determined by averaging grades for all subjects for which a full credit (full year courses) or a half credit (semester long courses) is awarded. Honors and Advanced Placement courses are weighted in the calculation of the GPA only: they receive an additional .04 point on the final average, which only appears in the weighted GPA, not in the course grade. The highest possible weighted average is 104.
