

STUDENT COMPUTER AND INTERNET USE AND RULES

These rules implement Board policy IJNDB – Student Computer and Internet Use. The rules are intended to provide general guidelines and examples of prohibited uses but do not attempt to state all required or prohibited activities by users. Failure to comply with Board policy IJNDB and these rules may result in loss of computer and Internet access privileges, disciplinary action and/or legal action.

A. Computer Use is a Privilege, Not a Right

Student use of the school's computers, networks and Internet services is a privilege, not a right. Unacceptable use/activity may result in suspension or cancellation of privileges as well as additional disciplinary and/or legal action.

The building principal shall have final authority to decide whether a student's privileges will be denied or revoked.

B. Acceptable Use

Student access to the school's computers, networks and Internet services are provided for educational purposes and research consistent with the school's educational mission, curriculum and instructional goals.

The same rules and expectations govern student use of computers as apply to other student conduct and communications.

Students are further expected to comply with these rules and all specific instructions from the teacher or other supervising staff member/volunteer when accessing the school unit's computers, networks and Internet services.

C. Prohibited Use

The user is responsible for his/her actions and activities involving school computers, networks and Internet services and for his/her computer files, passwords and accounts. Examples of unacceptable uses that are expressly prohibited include but are not limited to the following:

- a. Accessing Inappropriate Materials – Accessing, submitting, posting, publishing, forwarding, downloading, scanning or displaying materials that are defamatory, abusive, obscene, vulgar, sexually explicit, sexually suggestive, threatening, discriminatory, harassing and/or illegal;
- b. Illegal Activities – Using the school's computers, networks and Internet services for any illegal activity or activity that violates other Board policies, procedures and/or school rules;
- c. Violating Copyrights – Copying or downloading copyrighted materials without the owner's permission;
- d. Plagiarism – Representing as one's own work any materials obtained on the Internet (such as term papers, articles, etc.). When Internet sources are used in student work, the author, publisher and web site must be identified;
- e. Copying Software – Copying or downloading software without the express authorization of the system administrator;

- f. Non-School-Related Uses – Using the school’s computers, networks and Internet services for non-school-related purposes such as private financial gain, game playing, personal communication, or any other personal use;
- g. Misuse of Passwords/Unauthorized Access – Sharing passwords, using other users’ passwords without permission and/or accessing other users’ accounts;
- h. Malicious Use/Vandalism – Any malicious use, disruption or harm to the school’s computers, networks and Internet services, including but not limited to hacking activities and creation/uploading of computer viruses; and
- i. Unauthorized Access to Chat Rooms/News Groups – Accessing chat rooms or news groups without specific authorization from the supervising teacher.

D. Student Email Use

Students may use email at school only for work directly related to their course of study.

E. No Expectation of Privacy

The school unit retains control, custody and supervision of all computers, networks and Internet services owned or leased by the school. The school reserves the right to monitor all computer and Internet activity by students. Students have no expectation of privacy in their use of school computers, including e-mail and stored files.

F. Compensation for Losses, Costs and/or Damages

The student and/or the student’s parent/guardian shall be responsible for compensating the school unit for any losses, costs or damages incurred by the school related to violations of policy IJNDB and/or these rules, including investigation of violations.

G. MLTI Laptop Home Use

Students may take their assigned MLTI (Maine Learning Technology Initiative) laptop home provided the conditions and procedures outlined in the document “MLTI Laptop Home Use Procedures” (IJNDB-E1-3) are followed.

H. School Unit Assumes No Responsibility for Unauthorized Charges, Costs or Illegal Use

The school assumes no responsibility for any unauthorized charges made by students including but not limited to credit card charges, long distance telephone charges, equipment and line costs, or for any illegal use of its computers such as copyright violations.

I. Student Security

A student shall not reveal his/her full name, address or telephone number on the Internet without prior permission from a supervising teacher. Students should never meet people they have contacted through the Internet without parental permission. Students should inform their supervising teacher if they access information or messages that are dangerous, inappropriate or make them uncomfortable in any way.

J. System Security

The security of the school’s computers, networks and Internet services is a high priority. Any user who identifies a security problem must notify the system administrator. The user shall not demonstrate the problem to others. Any user who attempts or causes a breach of system security shall have his/her privileges revoked and may be subject to additional disciplinary and/or legal action.

K. Parental Permission Required

Students and their parent/guardian are required to sign and return the Computer/Internet Access Acknowledgement Form (IJNDB-E) before being allowed to use school computers.
